Submarine S-51 Coffin of 17 of Her Crew as She Was Raised After Being Under Water 5 Months

After five months of heart-breaking failures, the Navy Department succeeded in raising the S-51, a feat that some experts had declared to be impossible. The photograph shows the first appearance of the giant pontoons as they began to bring up the hulk of the undersea craft. Note how the water is being churned up by the excess air which was pumped into the pontoons by the Falcon of the salvage squadron. The S-51 was rammed and sunk off Block Island on the night of Sept. 25, 1925, by the coast liner City of Rome, carrying 33 of the crew of 36 down 130 feet to the bottom of Long Island sound.

INCREASE FUND FOR ENFORCING VOLSTEAD ACT

By ARTHUR HACHTEN
(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, July 12.—Congress during the session just ended appropriated $41,713,106 to enforce prohibition, an increase of $13,167,406 over the total allotted for that purpose last year. Rep. Martin B. Madden of Illinois, chairman of the appropriations committee, revealed in a survey today of the financial outlay of the national legislature.

By far the largest amount ever appropriated in an attempt to make America dry, the total represents allotments made for the prohibition unit of the treasury department, coast guard, and an estimated proportion for prohibition work of the department of justice, courts and prisons, he said.

"The large increase for prohibition enforcement is due principally to provision for additional vessels and operating personnel for the coast guard to prevent smuggling of liquor and to provide an increased force for the prohibition unit to stop smuggling along the Canadian border and lessen the illegitimate trade in beer and industrial alcohol," Madden explained.

With the additional funds, Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, federal prohibition czar, has begun organizing special squads to break down the outlawed liquor traffic, special units will concentrate on suppression of high-powered beer, diversion of alcohol to illegal channels, and serve as mobile forces to ferret out bootleg kings and corrupt prohibition agents.

Additional forces will be stationed along the Canadian border to fight the flood of bootleg liquor across the border.

El Cerrito Seeks Control Of San Pablo Avenue In Annexation Election Called

The El Cerrito board of trustees last night set August 18 as the date for the annexation election to El Cerrito of a portion of the Richmond Annex lying near the county line. The petition presented to the board last night requesting the election was signed by twenty-two of the twenty-five registered voter in the district.

The district which seeks annexation to El Cerrito lies from the county line to Avilla street and from San Pablo avenue to Panhandle boulevard. In annexing the territory to El Cerrito the residents also seek to bring in the remainder of San Pablo avenue not included in the district

BIG MAP TO SHOW PLANTS OF COUNTY

A map, electrically operated, showing the exact geographical location of every industrial concern in Contra Costa county is being constructed by the Lions club of Pittsburg, Walnut Creek, Concord and Antioch, to be displayed at the International Lions Clubs conventions in San Francisco next week. The mammoth map will be eighteen feet in length.

At the base of the map will be a table containing descriptive matter pertaining to the industries. A button will locate the industry on the map. Following the convention the map will be returned to Contra Costa and used as part of a permanent exhibit. The map is being designed by Raymond Spencer of Walnut Creek.

Car Crashes Into Telephone Pole As Driver Looks Back

Slight injuries were received by Parro Tarsanico, 11 Fifteenth street yesterday afternoon when the car he was driving plunged into a telephone pole near the gates of the Pullman shops.

According to the police report, a rear tire on Tarsanico's car blew out and the driver looked behind to see how badly the tire was damaged. Not noticing where he was driving, the report declares, Tarsanico's car struck the pole. The driver received a cut lip. His car was badly damaged.

PLUMBERS BONDED

Upon the recommendation of City Attorney T. M. Carlson, the city council last night approved and accepted the plumbers' bonds of John I. Collins, Frank Lucas and J. H. Buckman.

stretching to Manila street, near the Richmond city limits. If successful, El Cerrito will have full control of the highway from the county line to Manila street.

Plans and specifications for sewers on San Pablo and Macdonald avenues, Key boulevard, Carlson and Prather avenues were adopted by the city council last night. A resolution of intention for the work was also passed.

ANGLO-FRENCH DEBT PACT HAS BEEN SIGNED

(By Universal Service)
LONDON, July 12.—The French Finance Minister, Joseph Caillaux, made a spectacular dash by airplane to London today and after a few hours' talk with Winston Spencer Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, signed the Anglo-French debt agreement.

It was announced that the terms of the settlement, which supersedes the two previous debt "settlements" between Great Britain and France, will be given out tomorrow. What is certain is that new terms were cut and dried before Caillaux's arrival and represent further British concessions to France, particularly affecting the French payments for the next five years.

Universal Service learned tonight that France gained an important concession from Great Britain, but not the outright safeguarding clause Caillaux expected. Nothing arising from today's settlement modifies or in any way touches the Washington debt agreement with France.

Caillaux succeeded in getting annexed to the settlement a declaration by Churchill that if any time it becomes necessary to re-assess France's capacity to pay, her receipts from German reparations

SECOND EXPLOSION AT NAVY ARSENAL COUNCIL BUYS PARK SITE

CLOSING OF STREETS IS PROTESTED

Council Authorizes Purchase of Property to Complete The West Side Park

The city council last night authorized City Manager James A. McVittie to purchase lots on the south side of Cutting boulevard for the completion of the West Side park. The cost of the property amounts to $7,000 of which amount, $5,000 is for the Taggart property and the remainder for the property owned by the Mentzer estate.

By an agreement with the Mentzer estate, the city will close streets south of Cutting boulevard including Nye, Nevada, Emerald and Canal streets.

Several of the members of the council opposed the closing of the streets on the grounds that the property owners were merely using this as a whip hand. The council passed this agreement on the grounds that it was the quickest means to secure the needed property.

The Mentzer estate originally asked $2,500 for their property and reduced the price to $1,500 providing the city close the streets named so that they could make use of the property. They plan at a later date to make a waterway which they will allow as a public thoroughfare.

Councilman J. H. Plate said: "I don't believe the Mentzer people or any other should be given $1,500 from the city to close up property that they have continually dodged taxes on for years."

Councilman J. N. Hartnett stated "I don't believe it should be done, but if we go to court and condemn the property, it will cost us $5,000 before we get through."

The property involved in the park project is a triangular strip adjoining the school needed to square the property for the proposed West Side park.

Mayor Mrs. Mattie Chandler last night stated that there was already on hand $7,800 in park bonds to pay for the property. The purchase price of the lots, of which there are seven, can be paid for from this amount and leave a balance to the park department. "We realize that we are paying more for the property than the land is worth," declared Mrs. Chandler, "but under the circumstances I don't think that we can do better. If we took the case to court and instigated condemnation proceedings we would have to pay still more for the land and there would be a delay of at least a year."

"The residents of the West Side are anxious to have their park and we are anxious to have it completed for them. It is the quickest and best means I know of to secure the property."

Street Car Hits Automobile Driven By Dr. R. Powell

Yesterday morning shortly after 9 o'clock at the corner of Seventh and Macdonald, there was a collision between a street car of the Key System Transit Company, and an automobile driven by Dr. Rosa C. Powell.

Dr. Powell was crossing Macdonald avenue, going north, and when she reached the track on the north side, a west bound car struck her machine. The fender of the street car struck the running board of the automobile, bending it, and doing a small amount of damage to the rear fender of the machine. A conflicting report was made, the police were not able to determine who was at fault in the accident.

SULLINGER WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION

A. N. SULLINGER.

Announcement has been made by A. N. Sullenger, for the past twenty years auditor of Contra Costa county that he will be a candidate to succeed himself at the primaries to be held on August 31. Sullenger was an experienced bookkeeper when he took over the county office which he has held consecutively for the past five terms.

With his fifth term drawing to a close Sullenger has again cast his hat in the ring. So far no other candidate has announced his intention to enter the race for the post.

RICHMOND FIRE LOSS IN YEAR IS $28,491.85

Fire Chief W. P. Cooper last night presented his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30 to the city council.

According to the report, there were 234 alarms responded to during the year.

Loss resulting from fire amounted to $28,491.85 of which amount $9,843.09 was for loss on buildings; $17,846.26 for contents of buildings and $802.50 for fire loss on automobiles.

In fires responded to during the year 25,850 feet of hose were used; 1,816 gallons of chemicals and 1,229 miles were traveled by apparatus.

During a three and one-half month period 3,198 inspections were made from which 1,211 complaints were issued and 512 abatement records were recorded. All schools, industrial property, mercantile buildings and many residents were inspected by the department.

Asks Permit to Alter Building

Joe Matteucci, proprietor of the Roma hotel on Standard avenue between Washington and Santa Fe avenues last night requested the city council for permission to make alterations on the building made necessary by the widening of Standard avenue.

Although the building is within the fire limits of the city because the widening forces the improvements upon him, it was stated that the fire clause would not be applicable in this case. The council referred the matter to the building committee and City Building Inspector A. J. Hurley to investigate and report at the next meeting of the council.

E. C. Richardson, 1208 Macdonald avenue has left for Florida Kings Mountain, Kentucky.

LOCAL LIONS LAY PLANS FOR DISTRICT MEET

Richmond Lions to Take An Important Part in Big Lion Conventions

With the district convention of the International Lions scheduled to start Monday morning in San Francisco, the Richmond Den and its members are completing arrangements for their part in the session.

The sessions will be followed by the International convention of the Lions clubs which will begin on Wednesday and last until Saturday night. Delegates from all of the clubs in district 4, which comprises California, Nevada and Hawaii will be on hand for the sessions. The secretaries will meet at the Hotel Whitcomb at a luncheon Monday, according to A. C. Faris, who is chairman of the secretaries division of the district. Colbert N. Kurokawa, secretary of the Honolulu club has informed Faris of his intention to be present at the session and stated that if time permits, he would like to visit the Richmond Lions Club.

Richmond headquarters for the International convention will be the Hotel Whitcomb. Richmond is particularly fortunate in securing rooms there as that hotel is the official headquarters for the convention. All of the meetings will be held at the San Francisco auditorium.

The ladies committee of the Richmond Den of Lions, headed by Mrs. C. R. Blake, has completed plans for entertaining the women attending the convention at a day program to be held in Richmond. It is expected that 100 women will be entertained by the committee in Richmond. According to the plans, the guests will arrive by Southern Pacific ferry and will be met by automobiles and transported to the Hotel Carquinez where a luncheon will be served. They will be taken on a tour of the county by way of Walnut Creek to Martinez and back to Richmond where they will have a swim at the municipal natatorium.

Moving pictures of the International convention will be taken and the Richmond den has subscribed for a film which will be shown here at a later date.

One of the main entertainment features of the convention will take place on the closing night when the Hollywood Lions club will show the visiting delegates how moving pictures are made. It is understood that Harold Lloyd and Buster Keaton will be among the stars who will be present and take part in the picture. Members of the clubs in District 4 will wear their official uniforms which consist of white yachting caps, white trousers, shoes, socks and shirts and blue coats. They will wear purple neckties and on a purple band across their caps will be the name of the club to which they belong.

Will Continue Probe In Aimee Kidnaping Case

Mother of Mrs. McPherson and Her Secretary Will be Called Before Jury

(By Universal Service)
LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, mother of Aimee McPherson, kidnapped and slain, and Miss Emma Schaffer, the evangelist's secretary, will be the principal witnesses to testify before the county grand jury tomorrow on the resumption of its probe into the McPherson kidnaping case. Mrs. Kennedy will be questioned according to the District Attorney's aides, regarding the statement of her daughter that "Rose" and "Steve", her asserted kidnappers, had told her that they learned of her presence at Ocean Beach through a telephone call to Mrs. Kennedy at Angelus temple.

An apparent discrepancy in the statements of Miss Schaffer and Mrs. McPherson, relating to the whereabouts of the secretary when the evangelist was last seen at the beach, the grand jury is anxious to clear up. Miss Schaffer (Continued on Page 8)

Signing of Band Stand Contract Is Authorized

The city council last night authorized the signing of a contract prepared by City Attorney T. M. Carlson for the construction of the bandstand and rest room in Memorial Park. The council last week awarded the contract to Wallace Snellgrove.

Mrs. Chandler Intends To Handle Position As Mayor In A Business Like Manner

(Editorial)

Various and sundry newstories and statements attributed to Richmond's new mayor, Mrs. Mattie A. Chandler which have been sent out on wire services and published in out of town newspapers, not only do an injustice to the city's chief executive but belittle the entire city by their inference.

Mrs. Chandler has taken the position in the same serious light in which it was tendered to her. She did not make scathing attacks upon the morals of the younger generation and the conditions of the present age. About the only statement that she did make was to the effect that she believed the city was being run properly and that the public should be permitted to go about its own business without too much legislation and attempted moral drives.

The result was that many of those unable to see the middle road immediately went to the other extreme and wrote "guishing" items quoting the new mayor on stories and statements that had never even been suggested.

In clearing up the situation Mrs. Chandler reiterated the statements made in the RECORD HERALD after her election last Tuesday night: That she did not believe any radical reforms were necessary; that she was confident that her predecessors had carried on their duties in a conscientious manner and that she would do her best to follow out that policy.

Mrs. Chandler has been an active churchworker at all times. She was born and reared in a Christian home and is a regular church goer. She believes that parents should attend church and should be accompanied by their children when they attend church. Children who are raised in a home that makes its weekly pilgrimage to some church make better citizens in the estimation of Mrs. Chandler.

All in all, Mrs. Chandler has indicated that she intends to handle the job as mayor of Richmond in much the same manner that it would be handled by a man.

It should not be necessary to call the attention of Richmond citizens to the fact that many of the stories appearing about our new mayor in out of town papers were exaggerated and that Mrs. Chandler should be accepted as mayor in the same manner in which we accepted her as an active civic worker and energetic member of the city council during the past years.

SECTIONAL

The disposition of the East to match itself against the West, the North against the South, and vice versa, which has become particularly pronounced in congress during this present session, cannot be regarded as a healthy sign. This has been made evident during the past few weeks in the handling of the agricultural relief bill and the rivers and harbors bills. There is no denying there has been a general disposition on the part of these various sections to "get even" with one another, and to actually stop, or at least, hinder the enactment of legislation desired. There is evidence in plenty as to the unfortunate results developed by the emphasizing of factional blocs in congress, and under the circumstances it is impossible to view this new extension without doubt and misgivings.

Congressmen and senators are expected to have an eye and a particular interest in conditions or legislation which will directly affect the fortunes of their own constituents. In this present emergency, however, it does seem as what is needed is a fair admixture at least of representatives and senators who while appreciative of local needs will recognize that they have a dual responsibility to serve not only the state but the nation.

The several states of the union are so closely bound together, and, for all of the magnificent distances, travel to even the furthestmost points has been reduced to hours, that legislative activities which in seeking to improve local conditions ignore the close relationship of all the states is most unnatural and cannot but be harmful in the long run.

DISTINCTIVE

No matter in what line of work, it is always good to be the best. To him or it, rating highest in any line of endeavor, there is due honor, whether the job is turning out high class automobiles or a neat job of bootlegging, burglary or mayhem.

In a class not allied with either constructive or productive efforts on the one hand, or with praise-worthy crime on the other, is the bucking of bronchos. It is true that a good buck is often compared with a high misdemeanor, or even a felony. Many men have been arrested for doing to cowboys what some broncos do during Frontier Days, with only the applause and not the condemnation of the spectators and officials to follow.

It is enough that a piece of bucking is a workman-like job to merit and receive the compliments of judges.

The Journal Miner once more calls attention to its own broncho—Firebug Fits, which has now rounded out the third year of its devastating career as the best buck to be seen in the Frontier Days.

They are talking over in Paris about stabilizing the franc. From this distance it looks as though it needed vitalizing more than stabilizing.

PROGRESS

"I hear you are planning to make some changes in your store," remarked the doctor.

"Yes," replied the druggist. "I am going to rip out the prescription case and put in a lunch counter, and take the old bottle with their colored water out of the show windows, to make room for a flap-jack artist." — Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dancing masters meeting in Paris resolved to reform the Charleston. The only way this can be done is to feed aspirin to the performers.

TAKE BODIES OF SEVENTEEN FROM THE RUIN

the marines who are mopping up the area under the peril of shells that continue to explode almost every minute.

More than twenty persons are still missing and it is believed they are dead.

The damage is still estimated at $100,000,000 but some officials believe it will run higher when a complete check up is made.

The list of injured will run to the hundreds.

Lying beneath the flags draped by the Dover Post of the American Legion, all the bodies except one are waiting positive identification, silent testimony to the courage of those who live near the dangerous magazines.

The dead will be removed to the Brooklyn navy yard where the muster role and records will be sent and every effort made to establish identification.

Secretary of Navy Wilbur and Major Plunkett have arrived and are taking an active part in the direction of the rescue work.

The intense heat which has endangered the lives of hundreds through its proximity to the army arsenal has died down and it is believed by officials that the greater part of the danger is over. Exploration of the northern area is proceeding slowly tonight.

Three hundred marines are engaged in the hazardous task of going through "No Man's Land" looking for dead and injured and extinguishing the fires. Projectiles scream constantly over their heads as they penetrate deeper and deeper into the danger zone.

The searching parties worked with all the precautions of a war-time patrol going over the top. In small groups they squirmed over the ground on their stomachs, entering shell holes, dragging their stretchers and medical supplies with them.

The army arsenal is still within the range of the exploding shells but the danger of it being struck is gradually diminishing.

Four of the bodies that were recovered today were completely dismembered.

WAITER STABS S.F. ATTORNEY DURING FIGHT

(By Universal Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—Percy Dickerson, a waiter stabbed and perhaps mortally wounded Byron C. Parker prominent attorney late today at his office.

Dickerson arrested after the fray asserted to the authorities that he acted in defense of Mrs. Theima Cook, for whom Parker was filing a divorce and who was in Parker's office at the time of the attack.

Dickerson at first described Mrs. Cook as his sister but later said she was his fiancée.

Parker was wounded above the heart and in the groin and is said to be in a critical condition.

According to a statement given to Assistant District Attorney Boyle, Parker said Mrs. Cook had called at his office to sign divorce papers and that Dickerson rushed in and shouted.

"What do you mean by getting fresh with this girl?"

The followed a scuffle. Dickerson drew a knife and slashed repeatedly at Parker. The woman ran into the hall and screamed for help. At her home tonight she said:

"Dickerson is my sweetheart. Last Thursday I went to Parker to get a divorce suit started. My mother was with me but waited outside. When I got inside he insulted and kissed me. Today he telephoned me to come and sign the papers at 6 o'clock. I was afraid to go alone so I told Dickerson what happened and he went with me today.

"When we started into Parker's office from the reception room Parker slammed the door in Dickerson's face and kept him out but took me inside, but Dickerson rushed in after us and asked Parker what he meant by insulting me. Parker turned to me and asked if I told Dickerson that he had kissed me. I said I had and then the fight started.

Residents Near

Nicholl Park

Ask Street Work

Residents in that section of Richmond lying between Macdonald avenue and the Santa Fe tracks and San Pablo avenue and Nicholl park last night requested the city council for street improvements. The petition bore the signatures of sixty-five residents, owners of 143 lots. The council referred the matter to the street committee and City Engineer E. A. Hoffman for one week.

In the petition the residents requested that all of the street be graded and concrete sidewalks and gutters installed and that the costs be assessed against the property.

They also requested that at a later date a six-inch pavement with National Wearing surface be constructed by a bond issue to run over a period of ten years.

City Engineer Hoffman stated that he believed the present work of grading and constructing sidewalks could be constructed for about $2 a foot.

Wilbur, continuing his statement, lauded the seventeen dead men, although he frankly admitted that the bodies were, in some instances, charred beyond recognition so that it was at present impossible to tell whether they were marines or civilian visitors of either sex. Wilbur said:

"They are probably the bodies of marines, each one of whom died in the line of duty. They could not have been in the precise area where their bodies were found unless they were responding to a fire call, ready to give their lives—as they did—in an effort to save others."

The navy loss, estimated last night at $100,000,000 may be lessened, averred the secretary, contending that real estate value has not been depreciated greatly and that twenty underground storage houses, holding thousands of high powered shells and tons of T.N.T. are as yet untouched by the still burning fires.

No water is available in the area at present, so the fires must just burn themselves out, and even were water there, continued the secretary, it would be foolhardy to risk the lives of other marines to check any flames that may set off more of the powder and shell laden buildings.

DESIGNS THAT GIVE HOUSEHOLD LINENS THIS SEASON'S DATE

Fashion's Sponsorship of Old-Fashioned Cross-Stitch Puts it in Front Rank of New Embroideries

By MONA MULLEN

EVER sponsoring that which is original, whether it be in the realm of personal apparel or household linens, Paris is showing a new interest in embroidered linens. At all of the smart resorts, as well as at little afternoon teas, smart women are proudly showing dainty bits of needlework which they are making for the decoration of their homes.

And, of course, as Paris does, so does all the world, when it comes to a question of style. Such fashionable sponsorship has been given to the old-fashioned cross-stitch that it is now emphasized as a brand-new mode. It is featured on luncheon sets, runners, scarfs, and other articles used to beautify the home, and the motifs in which the cross-stitch is employed are so simple and distinctive that they definitely bear this season's date.

There is no reason why everyone should not be able to do the cross-stitch, for it is one of the first stitches learned in the days of childhood. Again it offers splendid opportunities for employing the gay tones that make this season's embroideries so beautiful and colorful.

The transfer of the motifs pictured gives a complete color chart, although one has the preference of developing the motifs in one color or any preferred grouping of shades. A background of ecru linen, Indian head, unbleached muslin or white linen could be selected with perfect taste. In addition to household linens, the designs are appropriate for the decoration of children's dresses, such as pockets, sleeves and collars.

In the transfer are included a peacock poised on a swing (not illustrated), a wreath with a bow in the center, with sprays of flowers spreading on either side, and small motifs for the corners of napkins.

ELKS START ANNUAL MEET IN CHICAGO

(By Universal Service)

By FRED VANDERVEN

CHICAGO, July 12.—Elkville, figuratively speaking, will be the new name for Chicago during the next four days. Three hundred thousand of the best people on earth—Benevolent Protective Order of Elks—are here, with guns, blue ribbons and hat bands, canes and what have you.

They have captured the city, literally and figuratively, the Dallas, Texas, members, who strut the streets with chaps, purple silk shirts, ten gallon hats and two six shooters strapped to their waists, are the heroes for capturing the town, literally.

When they arrived they "shot up" the Congress Hotel, and even blase Chicago turned and looked.

The convention actually got under way tonight at 8 o'clock when the some 2,000 delegates answered to roll call. There was a welcome address by acting Mayor O'Brien.

The response was given by Judge William Atwell of Dallas, the grand exalted ruler of the lodge.

The crux of the day, however, came with the arrival of two special trains from Philadelphia, bearing Mayor Kendrick and Charles H. Grakelow, the latter of which is slated to become the next grand exalted ruler.

The mayor also will extend an invitation to Chicago to attend the recent centennial exhibition at Philadelphia.

Footwear Mussolinis Set Fall and Winter Styles at Boston Shoe Fair

Tide of Wellington Boots and Kidskin Shoes in Colors and Black Carries Everything Before It...

Boston—Endorsement of the Wellington boots and the newer shades of kid shoes marks the opening of the annual Boston Shoe and Leather Fair at Mechanics Hall. Here, for three days, the leading manufacturers and shoe designers of the country have assembled to perfect just what will be worn in shoes for the coming Fall and Winter.

The principal attention of the forecast is centered on the lavish display of kidskin shoes. In accordance with the Parisian trend toward black, fashion interest is equally divided between black and brown shoes. The slippers of soft, jet black kidskin are invariably applied in a contrasting color or material. There are several shades of brown kid which have won approval, beginning with the light rose-beige and darkening into stroller tan, mauvette, marsala, and hamstead brown.

The first performance on the runway was in the form of an official presentation of the mode. Illustrating the close coordination of women's accessories, was the showing of a kid ensemble which featured hat, bag, and shoes or boots of matching design. Because kidskin is so soft and supple, it can be fashioned almost like silk. The hat was a crushed beret model of black kid with a scalloped combination of grey kid and Wellington boots combined black and grey kid with a narrow lace saddle and buckle almost like a pump. The slippers for the ensemble were a side lace oxford pattern combining black and grey kid with a scalloped treatment, while the large under-arm bag was of identical combination and design.

Wellington boots will be worn this winter for they are being shown here in a variety of the most attractive combinations in kidskin and they are meeting with the general endorsement. For boots will be not only a comfort in cold winter weather, but they are a smart accessory for the numerous fall and winter sport events.

For perfection in artistry and workmanship, the kid slippers above have been sketched as an illustration. Seen from the front these are apparently plain brown kid pumps but from the back one sees an elaborate medallion motif of delicate beige kid, carried from the tip of the heel across the counter. These slippers are worn with either hose of a matching beige shade, featuring a pointed heel which is so very smart and flattering with any dress slippers in that it gives that elongated, slenderizing line from the heel up through the ankle.

The cost of proving a new way to health

This offers you a new discovery which physicians are prescribing now to millions. It is a gland secretion, derived from beef livers. It stimulates the liver, increases the flow of bile. Modern research proves that cathartics never do that.

This new flow of bile, which starts at once, floods the bowels. It relieves constipation quickly—usually within ten hours. Then bile is an antiseptic. It combats the germs which breed in the blood. A new supply of bile ends countless results of blood impurity.

Bile is a digestant. This new supply ends bowel indigestion. This liver gland secretion is embodied in Dioxol tablets. Each tablet represents ten drops. "Clip this advertisement. Take it to our Special Agent, La Moine Drug Co., and he will give you a liberal sample of Dioxol free."

Richmond Annex "No Man's Land" May Incorporate

A fourth group of Annex citizens are circulating petitions in an attempt to settle their side of the question: "What is best for the Richmond Annex."

There are those who want annexation to Richmond. Another group wants annexation to El Cerrito. The third wants to remain just as it is. And this fourth wants an election to incorporate the district as a municipality, independent of all others.

Petitions were prepared for the fourth group by T. D. Johnson, Martinez attorney. Two other petitions seeking to annex the northern two-thirds of the district to Richmond and the remainder to El Cerrito are also in circulation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Madeira and their sons, Joseph and Harvey left yesterday for a vacation trip in Yosemite Valley.

UNIQUE LOVE STORY SHOWING AT CALIFORNIA

Today at the California Theatre is one of the most extraordinary and unique love stories ever penned. It is based on the novel by Clive Arden, "Enticement," and the universal appeal of its daring theme has made the book one of the best sellers of the year.

The Thomas H. Ince Corporation has transformed the book into a picture that is destined to become one of the most successful of the year. The First National attraction was directed by George Archainault, and the cast is headed by a trio of unexcelled brilliancy—Mary Astor, Ian Keith and Clive Brook. "Enticement" is unusual in that, while it is a story of love, it does not follow the usual formula and bring the "love at first sight" romance to a happy ending. Instead it tends to show that many young girls do not know what real love is when that emotion first stirs their hearts, and they allow themselves to be led into other paths, thereby sacrificing their lives on the altar of cold reason.

In this instance the girl was frightened by the advent of love, and found out too late that she had made a mistake. Other features include: Hal Roach's comedy "Don Key" (A Son of Burro), with Stuart Holmes, Bonnie Fishaway and Vivian Oakland; "Canary Island," variety of the world we live in; "Topics of the Day"; "Aesop's Fables"; and "Larry Canelo at the Organ."

Five in Jail; Five In Hospital After Dance Hall Fight

Five men are in the hospital at Rodco and five others are in the county jail following a free-for-all fight staged in a Rodco dance hall early Sunday morning.

Walter Murphy, of Richmond had several teeth knocked out as the result of the fight. It was said that when Deputy Sheriff J. M. Joseph, of Martinez, and Constable J. J. Fox, of Crockett, made an investigation yesterday they found at least fifteen more had blackened eyes and other bruises.

The injured are: James McKuen, 21, Crockett; fractured skull, condition serious; Harry McCloghlin, 23, Crockett; suffering from concussion of the brain.

Raymond Williams, 21, Crockett, badly beaten face; Walter Murphy, 22, Richmond; several teeth knocked out; Eddie McIver, 20, Port Costa; suffering from severe beating.

Those lodged in the county jail are Victor Aiello, 18; Samuel Aiello, 19; Vincent Marthuro, 19; and Tony Gonzales, 16, as the alleged ringleaders of the free-for-all battle. All of the men under arrest live in Valona, Contra Costa county.

The fight is said to have been the outcome of a feud of long standing between McKuen and Samuel Aiello. Following a mutual agreement of the two to fight it out in the street, the followers of the rivals decided to mix. After the fight had ended the ringleaders entered the dance hall and ordered everyone to leave.

At the hospital, it was stated that McKuen's injuries appeared to have been inflicted with a heavy piece of metal.

"Wild Justice" New Dog Story To be Seen Here

If you want to forget how hot it is, don't fail to see "Wild Justice," the new starring production of the police dog Peter The Great, which opened yesterday at the Richmond Theatre for a two day run.

Snow—whole mountains of snow—is piled up on the screen for a background, and much of the action takes place in a howling blizzard. They could turn off the lights and the theatre would still seem cool.

To say that the work of Peter The Great is amazing—well that's putting it mildly. Perhaps never in the history of the movies has a dog star demonstrated such athletic powers, or such uncanny ability to understand and portray human emotions.

"Wild Justice" is a stirring drama of the lonely North country, where justice is swift and not always sure. You will want to cheer when the great dog star, apparently able to understand the situation being worked out by the human actors, takes a hand in the tense game of life and death, and works out the ends of justice in his own savage way.

While the burden of praise rightly belongs to Peter The Great, the remarkably well-balanced cast of human players must not be forgotten. George Sherwood, Frances Teague and Frank Hagney have the principal roles, and each is ideally cast.

It is worthy to note that "Wild Justice" was directed by Chester M. Franklin, who has been responsible for some of the other thrilling dog stories recently presented.

Other features on the same program include "Should Landlords Live," an Arthur Stone comedy; "Topics of the Day"; and "Aesop's Fables."

Grand Welcome for "Bishop" Cosper has Been Postponed

Plans for the return of "Bishop" Wilbert Leroy Cosper to his flock from his seventy-five-day incarceration in the Contra Costa county jail did not turn out as was expected and the official welcome celebration has been postponed two weeks.

Bishop Cosper, of the Christian Philosophical Institute of Oakland and "Apostle of the Divine Chemist," finished serving his sentence last Saturday and paid a fine for violation of the state medical practice laws following his participation in religious exercises at the bedside of Mrs. Otto Dietrich, of El Cerrito, during the birth of a child.

His freedom from the jail was intended to have been celebrated by a festival at the Hotel Oakland, but it is understood that Cosper has gone to his ranch near Concord where he plans to hold a private celebration for four days.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Mary Shoemaker, who is making a motor tour of the nation has reached Glenwood Springs, Colorado.

Committees Are Completing Plans For Grand Opening Of Carquinez Hotel On Saturday

Arrangements for the grand opening event at the Hotel Carquinez, Richmond's community hotel, Saturday night are rapidly taking concrete form, according to announcement from the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, original sponsors for the hotel and in general charge of the Saturday night event.

President P. M. Sanford of the Chamber of Commerce, H. A. Johnston, chairman of the general committee and the various sub-committee chairmen met yesterday and completed the personnel of their committees.

The Richmond Merchants' Association at its luncheon yesterday unanimously pledged its support to the event and promised 100 percent cooperation on the part of the merchants.

The decoration committee headed by C. C. Kratzer and the entertainment committee of which Aubrey Wilson is chairman, also met during the day and outlined plans for their particular part in the celebration.

While the seating capacity of the banquet tables is limited to 200, the chamber of commerce and hotel management announces that fully 1,000 guests may be comfortably entertained during the evening.

Refreshments for the banquet are open to anyone whether they receive a formal invitation or not. Reservations will be made in the order of their receipt. Already a dozen seats have been reserved.

The civic, fraternal, social and commercial leaders of the community are cooperating with the chamber of commerce to make the event the biggest affair of its kind ever held in Richmond.

Marking as it does the completion of Richmond's first first-class hotel and the first community hotel, in the immediate bay district, the Saturday night affair has aroused unusual interest.

War Department Grants More Time On Bridge Permit

(By Universal Service)

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The War Department today granted the request of the San Francisco-Alameda bridge commission for an extension of time in considering the proposal to build a bridge across the bay north of Hunter's Point.

Interested parties were requested to appear before the Army's District Engineer in San Francisco and have him fix dates for hearings.

The Navy Department had disapproved of the bridge plans on the grounds that the structure would obstruct the Navy in time of war. The bridge commission claims that it can submit new plans to overcome this objection and the hearing is granted for that purpose.

Out of every 64 men reaching the age of 65, 54 are dependent! It is not reasonable to assume that any large percentage of them lived lives of reckless abandon or profligacy; there seems, rather, to be an intimation that disability or some other misfortune interfered with their well-laid plans.

Cooper Asks For Time Extension On Fire Survey

In the matter of investigating certain buildings in Richmond which are regarded as fire hazards, Fire Chief W. P. Cooper asked the city council last night for an additional two weeks in which to complete his survey. Under Ordinance No. 558 which makes it unlawful for any owner of buildings to maintain a structure classed as a fire hazard, it is believed that dangerous buildings in the city can be removed.

With this end in view, the council authorized the fire chief to investigate and make a report on all flimsy structures in the city which are likely to cause or produce a conflagration.

Former Local Youth Is Injured in Fall

Bobby Applebaum, 10, son of Mrs. Lucile J. Applebaum, of Oakland and former proprietor of the Waist Shop in Richmond, fell from a second story apartment last week sustaining a badly injured hip and the loss of several teeth. His fall was broken by clothes lines. He struck his face on the ground.

Ironworkers Are Off to Good Start In Second Half

"Call out the guards," the Ironworkers won another game. Evidently Phil Jones' hunch that his team will win the final half may be right.

Martinez was the local team's victim and they went down the line by a score of 2 to 1. O'Rourke and Daley were the heroes of the game. For eight innings the score stood one all and then O'Rourke was given a base on balls by Pitcher Waldo. Daley then stepped up and clouted a triple. Thus went the old ball game.

Frenchy LaClaustra pitched for the local team and allowed but five hits and for once he was given errorless support.

The Ironworkers line up included O'Rourke, cf; Daley, ss; Krastovich, 3b; Matthews, 1b-1f; Lawson, 2b; McElroy, s; Moss, rf; Scarich, 1b; LaClaustra, p; Murray, lf.

President Coolidge Is Not Worried Over Attitude Of French Over War Debt Pact

By JOHN T. LAMBERT
(By Universal Service)
PAUL SMITHS, N. Y., July 12.—They can take it or leave it. That was the attitude of President Coolidge today following the receipt of official advice that the French staged great mass-meetings of protest against the terms of the $6,800,000,000 war-debt settlement. Pressure to revise downward the already lenient terms granted the French has been exerted upon the President. International bankers are anxious to float new loans. A quiet campaign for actual cancellation of the entire debt has been launched by the pro-French organizations in this country.

But against all this agitation the President has definitely turned his face. His attitude is this:

1. That the nation which borrowed in good faith and promised in seeming good faith to pay back, must fulfill its solemn obligation.

2. That the settlement-terms granted the French were tempered with a generosity for which the French should be grateful and beyond which the United States will not go.

President Coolidge is more obdurate in this matter than the French statesmen seem to have suspected. It was by his decision that the Senate declined to ratify the pact until affirmative action is first taken by the French Parliament. It was also his decision that caused the state department to serve notice upon American bankers that the government would refuse to approve any private loans to France until the French have formally approved the pact.

Reed Smoot's comment, "if the French want to, hang themselves it's up to them," puts in a rude way the mental reaction of the President to the entire situation.

President Coolidge has been anxious to settle all war debts not alone because of advantage to the United States, but because of the benefits that will accrue to the financial system abroad. Until those debts are balanced he believes that foreign nations will suffer a continuing depression which will prevent them from readjusting their own fiscal organizations. He believes their industrial plants will be unable to recuperate fully, that the balance of trade will hang against them.

and that chaos will be the ultimate end. He believes, also, that until the settlements are effected, American markets will suffer abroad. He is anxious that the debtors get themselves into a position to buy American machinery and farm products.

President Coolidge is convinced that the French and American negotiations struck the best bargain obtainable. A steady procession of French negotiations seeking new and easier terms would follow that first reopening of the pact, he believes, and he is determined to stand on the present arrangement.

Transcontinental Train to Cut Time In Crossing Nation

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, July 12.—One of the shortest schedules between Chicago and the Pacific Coast will be opened on Sunday, July 18, when the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will change the running time of one of its crack transcontinental limiteds, the Columbian.

More than three hours will be clipped from the flyer's schedule, it was announced today. Heretofore the Columbian has left Chicago at 8:15 a. m. this departure will be changed to 10:20 a. m. despite the later start, however, the Columbian will arrive at Seattle one hour earlier, maintaining a schedule of less than three days for the 2,200 mile run. This is made possible by the fact that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul is the shortest route to the Pacific coast.

The Misses Virginia and Alice Rundrick left on Sunday for Crater Lake, Oregon, where they will spend their vacation.

GUILTY PLEA OF SCOTT MAY SAVE BROTHER'S LIFE

(By Universal Service)
CHICAGO, July 12.—The guilty plea of Robert Scott, to the charge of killing Joseph Maurer, a drug clerk, may be the means of saving the life of Russell Scott, a brother, now under sentence to hang for the same killing. It was pointed out today. Robert changed his plea from "not guilty" to "guilty" when he was arraigned before Judge William N. Gemmill in criminal court today.

When Russell Scott was first arraigned, almost two years ago, on the same charge, he also entered a plea of guilty, but when he was sentenced to hang, a young attorney, appointed by the court, who had advised the plea, with tears in his eyes, begged for permission to withdraw his plea.

There followed the long fight to save a condemned slayer from the gallows.

Should Robert be sentenced to hang by Judge Gemmill, after the State has presented its evidence, it is not believed there will be a chance to save either Russell or Robert from the gibbet. But should Judge Gemmill merely impose a life penalty, it was pointed out that a reprieve may be granted to Russell.

Robert informed the Judge he was aware of the risk he was taking in entering the plea, but said he was willing to abide by the decision of the court.

Maurer was killed two years ago during a hold up of a loop drug store by the Scott brothers, Charles Edison, proprietor of the store was the first witness for the state.

The plea of "not guilty" was changed to "guilty" it is believed, after the state had produced Miss Helen Bullard, who will be the ace for the people. It is believed that she will be able to identify Robert as an associate of his brother in the robbery.

The hearing of the evidence in the case started this afternoon. It is believed that the state and defense will take two or three days to present all of the evidence in the case.

Anglo French Debt Pact Has Been Signed

will be specifically considered by Britain. Payments by France to England, however, are not to depend exclusively upon German reparations.

The French payment for the first five years is reduced from five to three percent, and it is believed the initial payment will be about $20,000,000, the same figure as Italy's payment to England.

Caillaux gave the assurance that, after five years, he stood by his provincial undertaking of last year to pay an average annuity of $82,500,000 for sixty-two years. Caillaux will make a dash by air to Paris tomorrow to lay the terms before the Chamber of Deputies in the hope of strengthening the position of the latest Briand Cabinet.

Today's proceedings resembled a conference of two businessmen desirous of ending long negotiations. The French Finance Minister arrived without his silk hat. He was greeted by the Ambassador of his country, M. De Fleury, wearing a "Homburg," and this informality of attire was carried on in the decisive parleys at the French embassy. The only public pronouncement by Caillaux was:

"While airplane traveling is expeditious, it inflicts a necessary, but severe hardship on Frenchmen in depriving them from smoking during the journey."

fer in a written statement positively stated that when she returned with some orange juice for which she was sent she observed Mrs. McPherson in the surf and waved and talked to her.

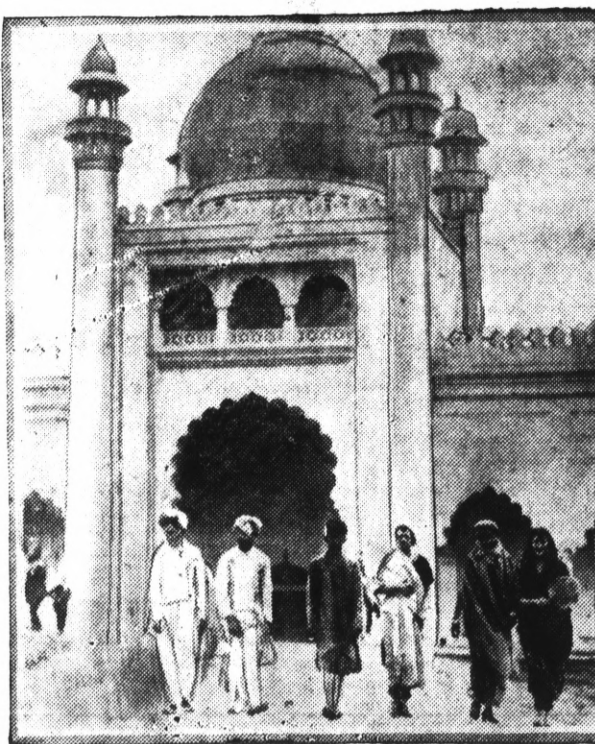

Mrs. McPherson, on the other hand, was just as positive that the last she saw of Miss Schaffer was when the latter departed for the drink.

The whereabouts of Kenneth G. Ormiston, considered a star witness in the case, was still being sought by investigators today. Ormiston has been variously reported in northern California, San Diego, San Francisco and at other points.

O. M. Barnard, a Culver city police officer, who claims he saw Mrs. McPherson returning from Ocean Park in an automobile the day she disappeared sought and received a subpoena today to appear before the grand jury. Other members of the party in Barnard's car, included Mrs. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Vick and a Mrs. Wray, were also summoned as witnesses. They will give similar testimony, it is said.

Final Rites For John W. Weeks Former Sec. Of War To Be Held On Thursday

(By Universal Service)
LANCASTER, N. H., July 12.—National cemetery, where it will be interred with full military honors.

Funeral services for John W. Weeks, former Secretary of War, who died at his summer home here early today, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at West Newton, Mass., his home town, according to tentative arrangements announced today by Sinclair Weeks, the dead war chief's son.

Interment will take place at Auburn cemetery, Cambridge, a few miles away.

Throughout the day messages of condolence poured into the Weeks home from all parts of the country. Telephone and telegraph wires were crowded with them for many hours.

Governor Alvin T. Fuller ordered all flags on the state house lowered to half-mast and issued a glowing tribute to Weeks' value to the state and nation in his various official capacities.

Death was not unexpected and today Weeks' entire family occupied the summer home, including Mrs. Weeks, Sinclair Weeks and his wife, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dange of Washington, son-in-law and daughter.

MEMORY HONORED

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Official Washington, received news of the death of former Secretary of War Weeks with deep sorrow today and immediately arranged to render all honors due to one of his rank and station.

The army issued a general order to fly all flags at half-mast and Secretary of War Davis and Chief of Staff Hines made arrangements to attend his funeral as honorary pall-bearers. Other cabinet and army officers as well as a representative from the Navy are expected to attend.

The funeral will be held at West Newton, Mass., at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, after which the body will be placed in a vault until it is brought to Arlington station.

Major General Hines, chief of staff, said:

"Mr. Weeks was not only our leader, but our counselor and friend during that difficult post-war period when the army was at the same time being returned to a peacetime status and reorganized under the national defense act. His ideals have been built into the army and his painstaking attention to his office have borne results which justify our sincere thankfulness."

NAVAL OFFICER IS NAMED IN DIVORCE SUIT

VALLEJO, July 12.—Alleging clandestine meetings of a handsome young naval officer and an attractive young matron of this city physical encounters between the husband and the officer and charges of overnight automobile trips are related in the divorce papers which were filed today in airfield by Herbert C. Snow, wealthy Vallejo baker and owner of the Snow System chain of bakeries.

Although Snow bases his suit for divorce upon the charge of "extreme cruelty" the name of Lieut. Ronnie A. Berry popular young naval officer and musician of Vallejo is prominent in many paragraphs of the long complaint.

THEY GIVE YOUR LIFE NEW EASE

WHAT would your life be without advertised products?

Imagine your home stripped of curtains, glass, paint, magazines, telephones, phonographs. Your table set without pepper, salt, sugar—everything except home-prepared foods.

Your life would seem both hard and drab. You would have little comfort or convenience; know nothing of the means to secure them. Unhelped, your own ingenuities would tend to limit your pace. You would progress by limps instead of leaps. You might not progress at all.

Advertisements sweep you on to enjoyments. Read them. Know about advertised products. They give your life new ease.

Pin your faith to advertised products... they are worthy of your confidence
